ASSIGNMENT:

In this Language Assignment you will learn how to write a short email using three proverbs
 Two of you will give a talk about a controversial subject after which we will have a discussion in class.
 homework: pp 20, 21 and 23. You will learn about the difference between formal and informal language in writing. Also you will learn about phrasal verbs and collocations.

Then you will practise giving your opinion in an oral discussion. You will also practice using informal and formal words and sentences in mails and letters. Finally you will learn about words that belong together as in phrasal verbs and collocations (word groups).

At the end of this assignment you will know/be able to distinguish between formal and informal use of the English language, and you will know more about phrasal verbs and collocations

Step 1: write an email to a friend about what happened last week. Use three English proverbs in such a way that they make sense.

Step 2: read “writing folder” on pp 20 and 21. Do exercises 1/5
